

Philosophy of Artistic Acuity

By: Matthew Conti

SUCCINCTNESS:

The most beautiful aspect of this world is we are all expressive and nurture a dystopia of reverence within the definitive purpose behind life itself --- The conveyance not in only the means of solidarity, or in accordance to prominence, but the reflection of sustainment and the extrapolation of interpolations of self. Which in reflection to this, the bravado of tastes or asphyxiations and mere connectivity to the kaleidoscope of compelled capacity but also acknowledgement of prominence is the vicariousness of the world, the polarization of ideals, and the catalyst for potency, potentiated and proportionated by the uniqueness of all that write, speak, sing, and even feel.

The idioms and mantras of today, and the benevolence of such, is not the means to an enrichment of esteemed brevity or levity --- The most dyslexic way of finding your voice is trying to find it. The biggest gift is the journey itself, and the definition of you, also the adoration of self-worth, and brio. To disregard self-dignity, respect and wisdom is suffocation of beauty, as well with the personification of grandeur of expression, the gentile fragility of encompassment --- The persona of self and its truest identity. In the aspirational, it is homogeneous acculturation, and mores enculturation.

Inhibitions of indignation and the orientation of ambiguities in the repository of definitiveness, is not in the connection to harmoniousness and revelry. To be above all things is not the notion to be destructive, ignorant or even selfish --- The means to become absolute and whole. In the predicate of diversity and adversity of such, as well as adherence to serendipity with gusto is the decadence of true overt personification. The esoteric isometrics of navigating through the dichotomy of diatribe is not only the vivaciousness of beauty and darkness, but the truest of utopia --- The discovery, the wonderments of lucidness and the verve, philosophy, and methodology under the fruition of Ebb and Flow.

The bereavement of integrity, authenticity, and intellect is the dismissal of veneration in the inner reflection, and the portrayal of true conviction of uniqueness. It is not of inference but a true rudimental and novel dividend of great endearment when acted upon with the sensibleness of true paradigm and demeanor --- The capabilities of great things is greater meaning.

In the conveyance of inner charity, outward distinction, and futility are the greatest aspect of having a voice --- The reconciliation to life, and establishment of confidence but also the monumental diction of gravitas, as well as the definitive provocation of true inner strength. Through the equidistant aspect of self and the proponent to the finite elusiveness of self-accomplishment and accompaniment of satisfaction in knowing that things are truly great, admired, loved and embraced is the most valuable - It is Will.

CREATIVENESS:

Through the rotary of volition and the caveat of visceral, in the enigmatic erudition of abundance, the predicate of vitality --- The oracularity in the proponent operatic, the bounty of assertiveness, it is not a catalyst that predicates simony. Foregoing the resolute and embracement, the fluidity of verbatim, in the introspection of indication. Providence in the glorification of solemnity --- Valiance in the oscillation and tandem, also reify prepossessing, the pageantry of motivation, accrument of disquisition, and the novelty. In spherical, elliptic, amorphous, the pinnacle of panache, the foundation of the resolute. Incline and devote, but also the pronouncement of tapestry --- The salient marvelous, meticulous and virtuous accompaniment in the anchorage of pedestal with presence, as well as inner reciprocity.

The allurement and reproach, the vindication and plausibility, the definitive and deterrent --- The philosophy of impetus, as well as distinction. In the dissonance, it is that of the consummate and the validation, as well as the consonance in the most centered absolution --- The vestibule and eloquence, those that speak, write, and even feel, are those of matrimony with the senses, as well proprioception --- Esemplastic autotelic apportion.

Sensory is that of the cognitive and resonance, in the sensibility and sensitivity in the most existential emphasis --- The subconscious, as well as consciousness and its truest satiation of kind and constants, as well as prelusive propine. Through the apparition of imagination and that of connectivity, as well as interconnected salvation, it is the centric and profound fundamental aspect of all things, the antiquity and creativity itself --- It is the balance, parallel, as well as paradox, bellwether and also vicissitude.

Processing and deduction, the idiosyncratic, systemic assimilation, but also in regards to the mandate of curiosity, as well as imagination --- The fervor of epiphany and the nest of thought itself. It takes the form of not only the formulaic, but also of the essence and its entity --- It is the provocative provost, as well as gestalts, also nonce. Through the telemetry of measurement, the semblance and the tenure of inference, the breadth of all things is that of true inhibition, as well as creativity --- The indication and solvency, the definition and the mark through the fidelity and monument, operant and pretense, the attribution of perpetuation of antiquity and the greatest endearment of self, also aphorism, as well as deviation. Through the visage of context, in the construct of volition, it is the conspicuous arch and the coalesce itself. In the whim of grace, and intuition, we are all expressive --- This is of affinity. In the azygous, it is the polestar and crux of essentiality, fulcrum of tenor. In the centrum, it is purport and its ineluctably concenter.

In the pensive and testament, the pervasive and contentment, the articulate and trove --- The median, meditation and embodiment, it is the bedlam of anomy, as well as consanguinity. It is vocative, and complanate. In the celestial and indivisible, it not only is the genial but also specter --- In the metaphysical it is creation. The proponent envelopment of circumnavigation, the decent of anonymity, to uphold embracement --- The viable aspect to luminary and gesture. For the ethos in all things, it is the abbreviation of all things ventured --- The means of proliferation, and the robust concentric. In the futility of craft itself, the vernacular of certainty, it is the loquaciousness of expression, as well as language, it is adroit prowess --- It is not of the reverberation of but a memorandum to auspicious vernacular.

Through the proctor and pensive, it is the magnanimous omnipresence, as well as extravagance of all things. In the interjection of gumption, it itself is wholly, and thoughtfulness. In the contemporary and comprehensive - It is Singularity.
